Privacy Notice

1. Who we are

The “bank”, “we”, “us”, “our” for the purposes of this notice means NatWest Group plc and its subsidiaries and related companies (“NatWest Group”), each of which is a data controller in its own right for the purposes of data protection law. As part of our candidate application and recruitment activities we collect, process and store personal and special categories of data (together “personal information”) which may directly or indirectly identify a Candidate (“Candidate,” “You,” or “Your”).¹ We process personal information for a range of purposes relating to general recruitment activities as well as the recruitment process and this may include your application, assessment, pre-employment screening, and your worker permissions. This Candidate Privacy Notice (“Privacy Notice”) sets out:

- why we collect your personal information;
- what information is collected and;
- how it is processed within the recruitment process.

Throughout this Privacy Notice we use the term “processing” to cover all activities involving your personal information, including collecting, handling, storing, sharing, accessing, using, transferring and disposing of the information.

Please refer to the applicable section for Poland, India, or United States below for specific information about how candidate’s personal information of is processed in Poland, India, or the United States, respectively.

2. Why do we collect your personal information?

We only process your personal information where we are lawfully permitted for one or more of the purposes set out below. Not all of the purposes set out below will apply to you all of the time.

- Application: activities carried out in the course of receiving and assessing candidate applications, including reviewing general applications or applications for specific jobs and processing information to enable subscription to our job alerts. This may involve the processing of your CV, name, address, employment history, academic and professional qualifications, age, diversity data including gender, ethnicity, disability, sexual orientation, nationality and previous disciplinary matters;
- Assessment: activities carried out in the course of assessing candidate suitability for roles at the bank, which may involve the processing of your CV, psychometric tests (such as a situational judgement test, ability or personality test), interview (face to face, telephone or video), behavioural assessments (such as a role play, group exercise or presentation), technical assessments;
- Pre-employment screening (PES): a pre-employment screening activities carried out for the purposes of financial, credit history and insurance risk assessments; criminal records checks;

¹ This Candidate Privacy Notice applies only to candidates or applicants for employment, who have submitted an application, resume, or CV for an existing employment opportunity at the Bank. Employees, including any temporary employees or contract workers, of the Bank should refer to the employee privacy notice applicable to their country.

county court judgements checks, adverse media checks, screening against external databases and sanctions lists to establish connections to politically exposed persons; determining penalties for tax evasion (see sections 7, 8, 9, 10 & 11 for more information on PES screening.);

- d) Candidate searches: In the course of our search activities, we use personal information that we have collected concerning candidates to identify professional opportunities that we think may be of interest. We may contact potential candidates from time to time regarding such opportunities. We may also contact individuals from time to time to solicit names of, or other personal information regarding, potential candidates in connection with a search that we are conducting and for purposes of market intelligence;
- e) General recruitment activities: market research activities and specific or speculative recruitment-related activities.

3. What personal information might we process?

Generally, we collect personal information directly from you in circumstances where you provide personal information to us by applying directly for a role at the bank, or information that we learn about you through your interactions with us, or with third parties (e.g. recruitment agencies). We may also collect personal information about you from third parties, including, for example, when a referee provides information about you, when a colleague recommends that we consider you for a position or from other sources where you have made your personal information publicly available for the purposes of recruitment on jobs boards, LinkedIn or other publicly available social media networks and databases. Here are some examples of the type of information we may process about you. There's a full list in the schedule at the end of this notice.

Your Personal Information

- Personal details such as name, address, email address and date and place of birth;
- Work history/job data; previous employers, positions, dates, etc.;
- Compensation; basic salary, benefits, bonuses, etc.;
- Education and work history including professional qualifications and skills;
- Employer feedback / references, to include regulated references where necessary;
- Nationality / visa / right to work permit information; (e.g. passport, driving licence, National Insurance numbers);
- Photographs and images from recorded assessments or from on-site CCTV;
- Results of pre-employment screening checks (e.g. credit history, criminal records checks where permitted under local law);
- Assessment results e.g. psychometric assessment results, results from gamification and video or telephone assessment.

Your Special Categories of Information

During the process we may also inadvertently capture some special categories of personal information about you (e.g. information relating to your racial or ethnic origin, religious or philosophical beliefs, trade union membership, physical or mental health or condition, sexual orientation), where this has been provided or made publicly available by you or can be inferred from your CV. We may also process certain special categories of information about you (e.g. information about a physical or mental health or condition) in order to make reasonable adjustments to enable our candidates to apply for jobs with us, to be able to take online/telephone assessments, to attend interviews/assessment centres, to prepare for starting at the bank (if successful) and to ensure that we comply with regulatory obligations placed on us with regard to our hiring. We may also process information relating to criminal convictions and offences (e.g. as part of pre-employment screening checks). We will only process special categories of information or information about criminal convictions and offences where permitted by applicable laws (and then only when necessary for the purposes mentioned above). Where we are processing personal information based on your consent, you have the right to withdraw that consent at any time where there is no other legal basis for the processing.

During the pre-employment screening checks, external organisations who work with NatWest Group to verify your Right to Work may ask for your consent to process your biometric data. These organisations will present you with their own privacy notices explaining how they control the processing of your biometric data and share the outcome (Pass or Fail) with NatWest Group. If you do not wish for your biometric data to be used for this process, wherever necessary you will be given the option of an alternative to biometric checks, such as presenting your identity documents in person.

4. Legal Basis Processing Conditions

The bank's entitlement to process your personal information is governed by a number of processing conditions. This means that we will rely on more than one of these conditions in order to process elements of your personal information throughout the recruitment process:

- a) The bank will process your personal information where it is necessary for entry into or the performance of the employment contract. For example, when you apply for a role;
- b) The bank will also process your personal information where it is required by law or regulation, for example health and safety laws, employment or tax laws, equalities laws and laws and regulations intended to prevent and detect crime and meet the regulatory requirements of the Prudential Regulatory Authority and the Financial Conduct Authority Conduct Rules;
- c) The bank will process your personal information where it is in the legitimate interests of the bank such as for general research activities to support our recruitment initiatives. This processing will always be fair and lawful and will at all times comply with the principles of applicable privacy laws in the country where you have applied to be employed;
- d) During the course of your application, it may also be necessary for the bank or its suppliers to process your special categories of information (including information about criminal convictions or offences) as per the detail in section 2 and Schedule 1 of this notice. This processing will only be carried out where this permitted by local laws and:
 - i. where you have provided your explicit consent (which may be captured where you provide special categories of information to the bank and its suppliers or affiliates); or
 - ii. where necessary to comply with employment law obligations such as making reasonable adjustments to ensure compliance with the Equality Act 2010; or
 - iii. Where necessary to undertaken criminal record checks to prevent and detect unlawful acts where permitted by local laws.

5. Who do we share your personal information with?

The bank may need to share your personal information internally (both in the country where you may work and in other countries in which we have central operations) and may require to share it with some external parties or associates of the bank. Some of these third parties and associates will be located outside of your country. Where we transfer your personal information outside your country, we will ensure that it is protected in a manner that is consistent with how your personal information will be protected by us in your specific country. This can be done in a number of ways, for instance the country that we send the information to might be approved by the European Commission; or the recipient may have signed up to a contract based on “Standard Contractual Clauses” approved by the European Commission, obliging them to protect your personal information. In other circumstances the law may permit us to otherwise transfer your personal information outside the EEA. In all cases, however, we will ensure that any transfer of your personal information is compliant with applicable data protection law. Your information will only be shared if it is necessary or required (for example in order to carry out pre-employment screening). However, the Bank reserves the right to share such information as is required and is consistent with applicable law, regulation or legal proceedings.

The recruitment process will involve:

- Assessing and progressing your application;
- Assessing your suitability (skills, strengths, behaviours for the role); and
- Activities needed to complete the on-boarding and screening process should your application be successful.

To enable these processes your personal information may be shared internally, but the information shared is limited to what is required by each individual to perform their role in the recruitment process.

Your personal information may be shared internally within the bank (including with other NatWest Group companies) with the following people:

- Those employees who would have managerial responsibility for you or are acting on their behalf;
- Employees in HR who have responsibility for certain HR processes (for example, recruitment, assessment, pre-employment screening);
- Employees with responsibility for investigating issues of non-compliance with laws and regulations, internal policies and contractual requirements;
- Employees in IT and system owners who manage user access;
- Audit and Investigations employees in relation to specific audits/investigations; and
- Security managers for facilities / premises.

Further, to carry out the business purposes or processing activities listed elsewhere in this notice, the bank may also need to share your information with certain external third parties, including possibly third parties that are located internationally, including:

- Companies who provide recruitment and candidate interview and assessment services to the bank;
- Suppliers who undertake background screening on behalf of the bank (credit checking agencies, criminal checking bureaus, etc.);
- Academic institutions c (Universities, colleges, etc.) in validating information you've provided; Individuals and companies that you have previously worked for who may provide references/recommendations to the bank;
- Purchasers and potential purchasers of the bank's businesses, including joint venture partners;
- Courts, external counsel, regulators, government bodies and similar organisations as required by law or regulation;
- Corporate auditors and legal or other advisors; and
- Other third-party suppliers (or potential suppliers), who provide services on our behalf.

6. How do we protect and retain your information?

Our HR and Recruitment systems are protected to ensure that unauthorised or unlawful processing of personal information, accidental loss or destruction of, or damage to, personal information does not occur. This is done in accordance with the NatWest Group Security Policy.

Where we share information with other parties located outside your country, as a minimum, the bank will require that such personal information is protected as required by the laws of the country where you work. The bank also requires its third-party suppliers or recipients of personal information to guarantee the same level of protection as provided by the bank. The Bank satisfies this requirement by ensuring that all third party vendors agree to robust contractual terms and conditions regarding data security and privacy; through its third party assurance function, the Bank also oversees and audits third party vendors to ensure that your personal data is protected. In addition to using your personal information for the position for which you have applied, we may retain and use your personal information to consider you for other positions.

We typically retain your personal information for up to two years, but retention periods may vary and will be determined by various criteria including the type of record in which your information is included, the purpose for which we are using it and our legal obligations (laws or regulation may set a minimum period for which we have to keep information). We may on exception retain your information for longer periods, particularly where we need to withhold destruction or disposal based on an order from the courts or an investigation by law enforcement agencies or our regulators. This is intended to make sure that the bank will be able to produce records as evidence, if they're needed. If you do not want to be considered for other positions or would like to have your personal information removed, you may contact us as specified under Inquiries, Complaints and Objections below. Unless required for tax or other legal purposes or in connection with employment as specified above, your personal information will be retained in accordance with our with our Managing Records Policy (which means that we may hold some information after your application to the bank is complete).

7. Your rights

We want to make sure you are aware of your rights in relation to the personal information we process about you. We have described those rights and the circumstances in which they apply in the table below. If you wish to exercise any of these rights, or if you have any queries about how we use your personal information which are not answered here, please contact us: NatWest Group Recruitment Support Team

Data Subject Right	Description
Access	You have a right to get access to the personal information we hold about you. If you would like a copy of the personal information we hold about you, please contact us at: EmployeeSARsManchester@rbs.co.uk .
Rectification	It is your responsibility to keep your personal information up to date so that accurate application records can be maintained. You can manage all of your applicant data by accessing and updating your profile on the bank's applicant tracking system or by contacting NatWest Group Recruitment Support Team

You may request that we delete your personal information if you believe that: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • we no longer need to process your information for the purposes for which it was provided; • we have requested your permission to process your personal information and you wish to withdraw your consent; or • we are not using your information in a lawful manner. If you would like to submit an erasure request, please contact us at: NatWest Group Recruitment Support Team
Objection (Marketing)	The bank will not use personal information collected about you for the purposes of recruitment to offer you any products or services for personal or family consumption ("direct marketing") or provide your personal information to third parties for their direct marketing. We will ask for your consent prior to sending you communications about future events and opportunities that are relevant to you. You have a right to object at any time to processing of your personal information for direct marketing purposes. You can change your preferences at any time by contacting: NatWest Group Recruitment Support Team or clicking unsubscribe
Portability	Where we have requested your permission to process your personal information or you have provided us with information for the purposes of entering into a contract with us, you have a right to receive the personal information you provided to us in a portable format. If you would like to submit a portability request, please contact us at: ROI-HREmployeePrivacy@natwest.com .

Automated Decision Making	We may make a decision on the suitability of your application by using automated scoring mechanisms and/or models. This will be based on responses collected during our assessments, such as psychometric tests and video assessments. Where automated decision-making is used that could have a legal or significant impact on you (e.g. automated psychometric testing), we will provide you with an opportunity to express your views and provide any other safeguards required by law. You have the right <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • to obtain human intervention • to express your point of view • to obtain an explanation of the decision reached after an assessment and • challenge such a decision If you would like to express your views on the use of automated decision-making and the impact on your application, you can contact us via email NatWest Group Recruitment Support Team.
Restriction	Where possible, we will restrict the processing your personal information if you have raised an objection or erasure request in relation the processing of your personal information whilst we review your query.
Complaints	You have a right to lodge a complaint with the relevant supervisory authority or data protection regulator. For more information, please see Schedule 1 for a list of contact details for your local regulator.

8. Screening Checks

As part of the Selection process, NatWest Group plc performs a number of screening checks, where permitted by local law. These checks are only performed on candidates who have been selected for a role. Your consent will be requested before screening checks are performed.

For United Kingdom and Republic of Ireland candidates only: The personal information we have collected from you will be shared with Cifas who will use it to prevent fraud, other unlawful or dishonest conduct, malpractice, and other seriously improper conduct. If any of these are detected, you could be refused certain services or employment. Your personal information will also be used to verify your identity. Further details of how your information will be used by us and Cifas, and your data protection rights, can be found by contacting the bank's Internal Controls Team.

9. Criminal Record Checks

Given the nature of our business, we have legal and regulatory obligations to ensure that the people we employ can be relied upon to handle client money and information responsibly. We therefore ask questions about any prior civil or criminal proceedings you may have been subject to and may also conduct criminal record checks, consistent with applicable law.

10. Credit Reference Agencies

We will undertake searches about you at credit references agencies who will supply us with information, including information from the electoral register, in support of our recruitment decision. The agencies will record details of the search but will not make them available for use by lenders to assess your ability to obtain credit. We may use scoring methods to assess this application and to verify your identity. You have right to access your personal records held by credit reference agencies and will supply their contact information upon request.

11. Fraud Prevention Agencies

To prevent or detect fraud, or assist in verifying your identity, we may now and periodically make searches of Group records and at fraud prevention agencies. Should our investigations identify fraud or the commission of any other criminal offence by you (on your part) when applying for, or during the course of your employment with us, we will record details on this on fraud prevention databases. This information may be accessed from the UK and other countries and used by law enforcement agencies and by us and other employers (and potential employers) to prevent fraud. Please contact us if you want to receive details of the relevant fraud prevention databases through which we share information.

12. Regulatory Screening

In order to comply with our legal and regulatory obligations in relation to anti-money laundering and sanctions restrictions, we will screen your name against global sanctions lists. The screening will simply involve searching our internal and third-party databases to ensure you are not on a sanctioned list. We are not able to employ anyone on a sanctions list. In addition, in order to comply with our legal obligations relating to anti-bribery and corruption, we will also perform searches and ask questions to assess whether there is a potential bribery or corruption risk to the role based on your personal and political associations. If there is a risk we will look to assess what additional internal controls we need to put in place to reduce that risk.

2. Screening checks and regulatory reporting

Prior to employment, where permitted by applicable law, we may undertake certain checks as set out above, including Criminal records checks, Credit checks, and Regulatory Screenings. The Fraud prevention checks”, as noted above, are not applicable to U.S. applicants.

3. Your rights

Please note that the rights set forth above in the “Your rights” section of this Candidate Privacy Notice do not apply to applicants applying for a position in the U.S. For California-based applicants, please see the section below for the rights that you may have. If any other U.S.-based applicants should have any questions, please contact US Colleague Services at USColleagueServices@natwestmarkets.com.

California Applicants

This California Section (“CA Notice”) applies only to applicants who are California residents and qualify as a Consumer under the California Consumer Privacy Act as amended and updated by the California Privacy Rights Act (“CCPA”). This CA Notice supplements the information contained above in the Applicant Notice (US). NatWest Markets Securities Inc. adopts this CA Notice pursuant to 1798.100 et seq.

The Company does not sell or share the above categories of personal information as those terms are defined under the CCPA.

California Residents Rights

Employees who are California residents have the following rights:

Right To Know About Personal Information Collected or Disclosed. In addition to what is described above, you have the right to request the following information relating to the preceding 12 months, as applicable:

- the categories of personal information including sensitive personal information (collectively “PI”) collected about you;
- the categories of sources from which the PI is collected;
- the business or commercial purpose for collecting, selling, or sharing the PI, if applicable;
- the categories of third parties to whom we disclose, sell or share the PI (please note that we do not sell or share your PI as defined by the CCPA); and
- the specific pieces of PI collected about you.

Upon receipt of a verifiable request (see below), we will respond to such requests. We reserve the right to deny a request when responding to the request proves impossible or involves a disproportionate effort. Please note that we are not required to respond to a request more than twice in a twelve month period.

Right To Request Deletion of Your Personal Information. You have the right to request that we delete PI we have collected or maintain about you. Upon receipt of your request, we will tell you what if any PI we can delete from our records. We will also direct any service providers, contractors, or third parties to whom we have disclosed, sold or shared your PI to delete your PI from their records. Please note that we do not sell or share your PI as defined by the CCPA.

There may be circumstances where we cannot delete your PI or direct service providers, contractors or third parties to delete your PI from their records. These circumstances may include, without limitation, when your PI is necessary for internal uses you would reasonably expect based on your relationship with us and the context, or to comply with a legal obligation.

Upon receipt of a verifiable request and as required by applicable law, we will provide a response to such requests. We reserve the right to deny a request to delete where responding proves impossible or involves a disproportionate effort.

Right to Request Correction. You have the right to request that we correct any inaccurate PI we maintain about you. Upon receipt of a verifiable request and taking into account the totality of the circumstances, including but not limited to the nature of the PI and the purpose for processing it, we will respond to your request. We reserve the right to deny a request to correct where responding proves impossible or involves a disproportionate effort.

Right to Non-Discrimination for the Exercise of Your Privacy Rights. We will not discriminate or retaliate against you for exercising any of the rights described above.

Submitting a Rights Request

To submit a request to exercise a right, please contact USColleagueServices@natwestmarkets.com

Verification. We reserve the right to respond only to verifiable request to know, delete, or correct. If we request, you must provide sufficient information to help us verify your identity and/or authority to act on your behalf. In general, we may ask you to provide identifying information that we already maintain about you. We will try to avoid asking for sensitive PI to verify your identity. We may not be able to respond to your request or provide you with PI if we cannot verify your identity or authority to make the request and confirm the PI relates to you.

We reserve the right to amend this Notice at any time without advance notice.
